How it works:

1. Purchase a qualifying Datamax-O'Neil printer from an authorized reseller between July 1 and December 31, 2009 and get a 1:1 ratio trade-in allowance on any qualifying printer you now own.
2. To qualify for the rebate, mail the following items to the Datamax-O'Neil Trade-In Program (see contact info below): (1) A copy of your qualifying invoice (reseller to end-user); (2) A completed trade-in form; (3) the actual serial number tag removed from the trade-in printer(s) being decommissioned (copy not accepted) and a photo of the main board, if trading in a stationary printer.
3. Upon receipt of your trade-in documents, we will e-mail you a confirmation.
4. Trade-in rebates must be applied for within 60 days of purchasing new qualifying Datamax-O'Neil printer.

Terms and Conditions:

Trade-ins must be on the approved model list for this program or have been approved by Datamax-O'Neil Marketing by special request. Handwritten invoices or sales history receipts are not accepted. Allow 6-8 weeks for trade-in rebate. Requests that do not comply with the terms of this offer will be rejected. Datamax-O'Neil is not responsible for lost, stolen or misdirected requests. This offer can be combined with other standard marketing promotions, but cannot be combined with non-standard pricing. Datamax-O'Neil reserves the right to change the specifications of this program at any time.
